

ICD-10 Is Delayed: Now What?

National Council Coffee Break Webinar
June 2, 2014

Nina Marshall, MSW

Director of Public Policy

National Council for Behavioral Health

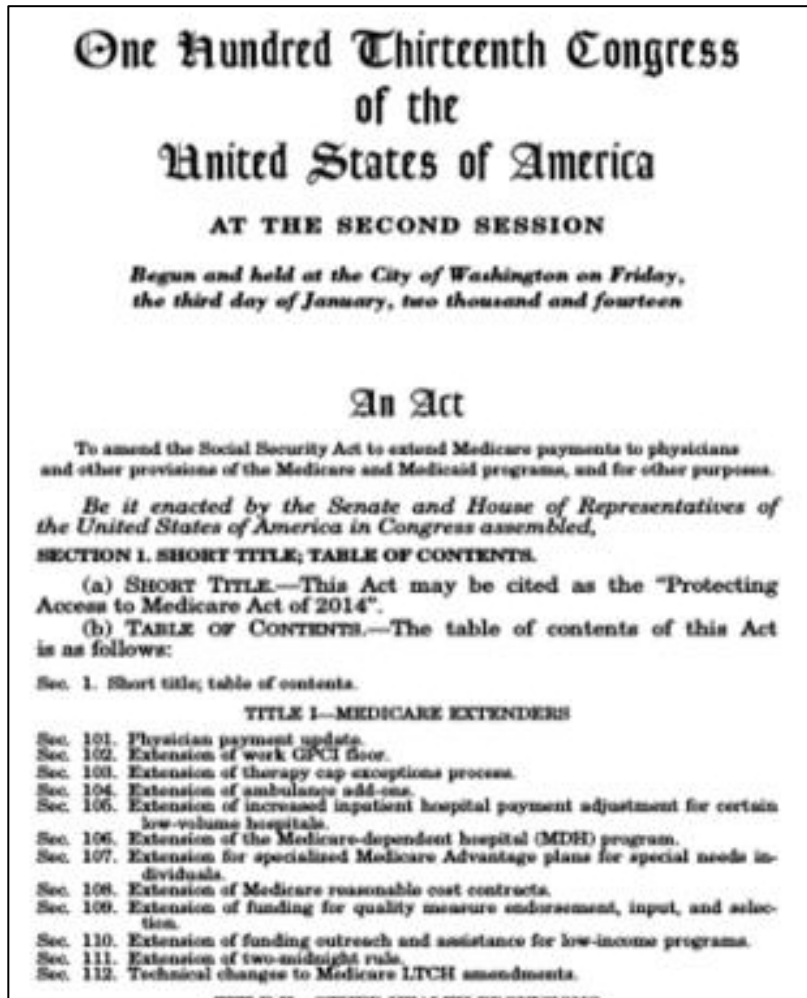

David Swann, MA, LCAS, CCS, LPC, NCC,

Senior Integrated Healthcare Consultant

MTM Services

What We Know Today

- Congress Acted!
- ICD-10 will be effective October 1, 2015 – and not before
- DSM-5 is not directly affected by this change
- CMS will release rule in coming months

What We Don't Know (Yet)

- Whether payors will choose to delay DSM-5
- When CMS will restart system testing

Now What?

Determine
Payor Plans for
DSM-5

Get Documentation
in Order

Readiness
Testing

Questions?

Nina Marshall

NinaM@TheNationalCouncil.org

David Swann

David.Swann@MTMServices.org

More:

- National Council, Coding Behavioral Health Services

-  CAPITOL CONNECTOR
POLICY INTO PRACTICE

