ICD-10 Is Delayed: Now What?

National Council Coffee Break Webinar
June 2, 2014

Nina Marshall, MSW
Director of Public Policy
National Council for Behavioral Health

David Swann, MA, LCAS, CCS, LPC, NCC,
Senior Integrated Healthcare Consultant
MTM Services
What We Know Today

- Congress Acted!
- ICD-10 will be effective October 1, 2015 – and not before
- DSM-5 is not directly affected by this change
- CMS will release rule in coming months
What We Don’t Know (Yet)

- Whether payors will choose to delay DSM-5
- When CMS will restart system testing
Now What?

- Determine Payor Plans for DSM-5
- Get Documentation in Order
- Readiness Testing
Questions?

Nina Marshall
NinaM@TheNationalCouncil.org

David Swann
David.Swann@MTMServices.org

More:
• National Council, Coding
  Behavioral Health Services