About the National Council

The National Council for Behavioral Health (National Council) is the unifying voice of America’s community mental health and addictions treatment organizations. Together with our over 2,900 member organizations we serve our nation’s most vulnerable citizens — more than 10 million adults and children living with mental illnesses and addiction disorders. The National Council pioneered Mental Health First Aid in the U.S. and has trained over 1 million individuals to connect youth and adults in need to mental health and addictions care in their communities.

Our mission is to advance our members’ ability to deliver integrated health care. We advocate for policies that ensure that people who have mental health and substance use problems can access comprehensive health care services. We also offer state-of-the-science education and practice improvement consulting and resources to ensure services are efficient and effective.

Your Membership Counts

The National Council offers Affiliate Membership to qualified entities — health care vendors, technologies, health systems, consultants, and organizations that serve behavioral healthcare organizations and have a strong commitment to helping people recover from mental illness and substance use.

Affiliate Members have the opportunity to interact with the premier behavioral health care organizations in the country. Partnering with the National Council and our members, you can be an intrinsic part of our public policy and practice improvement action.

Affiliate membership opens up a dynamic marketplace where you can cultivate and expand business contacts. As an “insider,” you gain valuable insight into emerging business opportunities and problem areas in need of unique solutions you can bring to the market.
